

NEW HANDS, CRAFTS AND ARTISANS IN EBELTOFT

1 – 31 August 2018

PROGRAMME

Under the theme of Hands, Crafts and Artisans in Ebeltoft, the Frigate Jylland, Glasmuseet Ebeltoft and Museum Østjylland are focusing on work done by hand in time-honoured crafts and trades. Explore Ebeltoft and its history as a maritime market town, get a close look at how work was done by hand, and try some crafts yourself.

You can find the programme and book tickets at www.fregatten-ivlland.dk, www.glasmuseet.dk and www.museumoi.dk. Or follow the links in this programme. There are different activities each day, when viewers can try out crafts, techniques and materials with their own hands.

Programme subject to change.

From wood to ship: Guided tour with the Frigate's artisans

The artisans who built the Frigate Jylland 150 years ago were known as the permanent staff at Holmen, the Navy dockyard. Today the Frigate Jylland has a permanent staff of artisans who have restored and maintained it for 30 years. In August they will take the task of introducing the Frigate into their own work-worn hands and show how raw timber is transformed by skilled craftsmanship into hard-wearing, but elegant forms with built-in functionality.

Come and follow them round, and learn about the process from soil to ship from people who know all about it.

Place: The Frigate Jylland

Price: Admission to the museum

4 – 5 August, 10 am – 3 pm

Meet the Royal Danish Naval Museum's model guild

For model builders, the fascinating thing about model ships is that they can sail off into a completely different kind of reality. Model-builders visualise and understand the past in their models, and can get completely carried away.

See the exciting work of the Royal Danish Naval Museum's model guild as they build fabulous model ships, and hear about techniques and materials.
